What's New at Dulaney Valley Memorial Gardens?

Dulaney Valley Memorial Gardens strives to offer a wide variety of memorialization options. With a number of new developments underway, we thought we would share them with you in our seasonal newsletter.

New Family Service Advisors

In January, we welcomed two new Family Service Advisors to our Dulaney Valley family. Laura Glauber and Roosevelt Lunn each bring strong service experience to our team which is reflected in the caring and personalized service they provide to our families.

Laura Glauber

Laura, a Baltimore native, has been a licensed Funeral Director for 32 years in Maryland and Pennsylvania. She resides in Bel Air with her husband John and their dog "Bella". She enjoys traveling with her husband, spending quality time with her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter, and her son. Laura embraces kindness and practices compassion when assisting others at a difficult time in their lives.

Roosevelt Lunn

Roosevelt is original to the Baltimore area. He comes to Dulaney Valley from the auto industry where he has spent the last 13 years as a Finance Manager. He and his wife have two sons and enjoy traveling to their sons' soccer games. Roosevelt believes that compassion with a sincere desire to help others makes it easy to give the highest level of customer service – no matter the situation.

Sanctuary Mausoleum

Our Sanctuary Mausoleum is complete! The new mausoleum is comprised of two structures joined to create an open-air chapel offering visitors shade and protection from the elements.

Sanctuary Mausoleum adds 140 single crypts, 224 tandem crypts and 160 niches for a total of 524 opportunities for those interested in an affordable alternative to in-ground burial. Spaces are now available. Please call our office to speak with a Family Service Advisor to learn more and check availability.

To learn more about our traditional and cremation burial options, please contact one of our Family Service Advisors Monday through Friday from 8:30 - 5:00pm and Saturday from 9:00 - 3:00pm.
