What's New at Dulaney Valley Memorial Gardens?

Dulaney Valley Memorial Gardens strives to offer a wide variety of memorialization options. With a number of new developments underway, we thought we would share them with you in our seasonal newsletter.

Family Service Advisors

In the Spring edition, we introduced you to our newest Family Service Advisors. This time around, we would like to reintroduce you to the dedicated Family Service Advisors who have been providing compassionate care to our Dulaney Valley families over the years.

Nick Skinner

Originally from England, Nick has been a Family Service Advisor in the Baltimore area since 1995 and with Dulaney Valley for almost 20 years. He is an ordained minister and often provides spiritual support to families coping with a loss. Nick lives in Pennsylvania with his wife, Janice, and has three children: Nick, Tiffany and Zachary. He recently welcomed his first grandchild, a baby boy named Corbin.

Tripp Winter

Prior to joining Dulaney Valley in 2011, Tripp was a member of The Board of Realtors, assisting in the transfer of land and homes in the northern Baltimore area for 25 years. He resides in nearby Lutherville and enjoys spending time with his three children: Sarah, Hannah and Jack. In his spare time, Tripp likes to go to the beach, play tennis, hike and get together with friends and family.

George Pecsek

Before joining Dulaney Valley in 2014, George's experience began as a MASH Unit Trauma Specialist in the U.S. Army. He then worked at The Johns Hopkins Hospital and University, first, as a member of the ER Team and then in Clinical Research for the National Institutes of Health. George has three children, one grandchild, lives in Perry Hall and is an avid fisherman.

Bronze Angel Niches

We are pleased to offer a new cremation feature for individual or companion inurnment. Bronze wall niches, nestled under porticos at both side entrances to the Mausoleum Chapel, create a celestial scene of angels heralding inward as if to usher one into eternal life.

Each of the four walls contains 66 square niches (12"x12") for a total of 264 opportunities for families interested in inurnment near our Mausoleum Chapel as well as the symbolism. Special Offer: Save $1250 now through August 31, 2019.

BIG NEWS

We can hardly wait to share some big news about our cremation offerings. All will be revealed in our Fall newsletter. Hint: We will be the first in Baltimore County!
